

ATLANTA HISTORY CENTER

SEARCH

About Us Exhibitions Historic Houses Gardens Programs Collections Research Support Membership Visit Plan an Event

Gardens

Home » Gardens

- The Mary Howard Gilbert Memorial Quarry Garden
- Tullie Smith Farm Gardens
- Cherry Sims Asian American Garden
- Swan House Gardens and Grounds
- Swan Woods Trail
- Frank A. Smith Rhododendron Garden
- Connor Brown Discovery Trail

MEMBERSHIP

PURCHASE TICKETS

LECTURES

Gardens

3

31

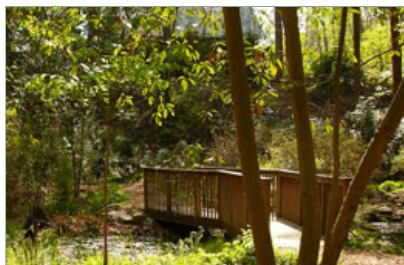

Share

54

Learn more about photoshoots.

The Mary Howard Gilbert Quarry Garden

See one of the state's most comprehensive collections of plants native to pre-colonial Georgia.

Cherry Sims Asian-American Garden

Tullie Smith Farm Garden

Learn what type of gardens Georgians would have maintained for pleasure and utility in the 1860s.

Swan House Gardens and Grounds

Observe how Asian plants and rhododendrons mingle in this exotic environment.

Swan Woods Trail

---

Explore the Georgia Piedmont's woodlands ecosystem.

Connor Brown Discovery Trail

---

Seven interactive discovery stations encourage children to play, explore, imagine, ask questions, and seek additional knowledge on the environment around them.

Enjoy the lavish landscape of Swan House featuring a boxwood garden and a cascading fountain.

Frank A. Smith Rhododendron Garden

---

Wander among the Azaleas and rhododendrons featured in this contemporary garden.